

May 2011

Dear Fellow Investors and Friends:

At a recent gathering of Christian leaders, I was privileged to hear Elisa Morgan speak. Mrs. Morgan is the publisher of FullFill, President Emerita of MOPS International, and the author of more than 15 books.

The scripture used in her message was from the story in Mark 14 of the woman who poured pure nard on Jesus. In verses 6–8, New International Version, we read:

“Leave her alone,” said Jesus. “Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. The poor you will always have with you, and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me. She did what she could. She poured perfume on my body beforehand to prepare for my burial. Truly I tell you, wherever the gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her.”

The central point Mrs. Morgan made was that we can't do it all, but we must do what we can. I have often thought that as ADF investors, we give, pray, and serve. And we know that we can't give everything we have as we must also fulfill obligations to our families, prudently save for emergencies, etc. But we can invest some of our savings in advancing the Kingdom through ADF. In doing so, we are ensuring that we are “doing what we can.”

Thank you for your ongoing investments and for your commitment to seeing God's Kingdom advanced. You are deeply appreciated.

Please contact me or our team members with questions, comments, or prayer requests. They are always most welcome.

Sincerely,

Lawrence L. McCooley, CPA, PFS
President

P.S. You can check current ADF rates here.